PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This year, Global World of Music and Arts celebrates thirty years of passionate dedication to the promotion of music, arts and various events within the musical and artistic milieu in India and across the globe. I am very certain that every music and art lovers will join me in celebrating this important anniversary, and I wish GWMA another 30 years of success. I would like to acknowledge the extraordinary work achieved by Global World of Music and Arts over the past 30 years. I would like to congratulate all those associated with GWMA for their remarkable work. With wisdom and precision, you communicate your passion for classical music and arts in all its diversity, thereby contributing to the enrichment of India's unique cultural heritage.

Global World of Music and Arts is a nonprofit organization devoted to promoting, sustaining and maintaining the work of underrepresented young artists from around the world. In addition to its regular events, this offers robust coverage of the arts through its website and organizes premier live programming in cities around the globe, routinely collaborating with other music, arts and cultural organizations and institutions to bring the work of its featured artists directly to audiences. This association's events and projects are designed to meet the immediate needs of modern arts enthusiasts while enduring and becoming a permanent resource for future generations of Artists and Musicians.

We are passionate supporters and participants in the local arts and music community and invite both established and emerging artists to perform for the events we have been organizing locally and globally. Centre , Dr. Jasper Wieck German Embassy, Prof. Dr. V K Goswami, other dignitaries and connoisseurs of classical music and dance. I believe it's important to start this year by reminding ourselves of what the goal of our community is in regards to the promotion of and preservation of music and arts. We all truly aspire to become good human being and much of these aspirations can be fulfilled by those who can enjoy the deeper forms of beauty, and thus think creatively while approaching life. I strongly believe music and arts have a profound impact on our social system, and some ideas to incorporate the arts into each and every day of our life.

On behalf of GWMA, I would like to congratulate and thank everyone for their valuable support.

With profound joy and regards,

LP, Pontsang,

President:

An EVENING of CULTURAL EUPHORIA

Mr. Wangden, Ms. Tamding, Ms. T. Lhamo, Prof. V. K. Goswami
Ms. Yangchen, Ms. Chering & Mr. Chering with Artists from Kalimpong

The Annual Concert of Classical Music Of Italy in Collaboration with the Italian Cultural Centre of India proudly showcased a delightful evening of music, laughter and joy on 26th July, 2018.

The evening was graced upon by a number of dignitaries, His Excellency Mr. Lorenzo Angeloni, Italian ambassador to India, Simona Buchi, Representative of the Himalayan Cultural Centre and Mr. L.P Putsang, along with Mr. Sandeep Marwah as the Chief Guest & Dr. V. K. Goswami as the Guest of Honor.

Mr. Sandeep Marwah is the Director of Asian Academy of Film & Television and Asian School of Media Studies. He has founded the Filmcity in Noida, which is one of the fastest growing media industry at the moment. Dr. V. K. Goswami is former Vice Chancellor & NASA-Scientist.

The event commenced with a performance by Daniela Dolce Ensemble and group giving the audience a taste of Italy through their rendition of some famous compositions, which was followed by Italian Jazz and Dominico's compositions.

There was a short break taken from this, as Mr. S. Marwah & Dr. V. K. Goswami felicitated the artists with certificates and honours. Mr. S. Marwah enlightened the audience with his words, emphasizing on the beauty of music and the liberation it offers to the human mind.

The event continued with performances by other artists, who presented different cultural music and dance forms such as Nomba

(The Tibetan Hunters' Dance), followed by the Bhutanese traditional dance.

The final act was the famous Snow Lion Dance which was received very enthusiastically by all. The end of the evening left all bittersweet, because something as brilliant must be enjoyed longer.

It can be said, that unanimously, such events should be organized more often, so that we can learn from different cultures and take inspiration towards a path of liberty and harmony.
